

Dear FLI Customer,

UPS and the Teamsters Freight National Bargaining Committee concluded the current round of discussions on October 25, 2018. A union-hall vote, in which Teamster employees will go to their local union hall to cast ballots, is expected to take place November 7-11. At this point, UPS does not have an extension in place to the current UPS Freight contract. The outcome is uncertain and the possibility of a strike has been mentioned by UPS as a “last resort.” UPS has informed us that they will not pick any shipments up that have a delivery date after November 8, 2018.

Effective today, Friday, November 2, 2018 FLI Transportation and Logistics will remove UPS as an option for any LTL shipments, until the parties involved come to an agreement that avoids work stoppage. This is in an effort to ensure we do not place your freight at risk.

Any shipments that have previously been scheduled by UPS, that deliver prior to November 8, will still be picked up and handled according to plan. If your shipments fall outside of the below “last pickup dates,” your account manager will contact you to reschedule your freight with a comparable alternative carrier.

- 4-day shipping commitments – Friday, November 2, 2018
- 3-day shipping commitments – Monday, November 5, 2018
- 2-day shipping commitments – Tuesday, November 6, 2018
- 1-day shipping commitments – Wednesday, November 7, 2018

UPS will not be offered as an FLI carrier option until an agreement is reached that avoids work stoppage and ensures your freight will not be put at risk.

Please be assured we are actively working to make certain all currently scheduled UPS loads are delivered prior to November 8th and that your best interest will be kept in mind as we work to provide you with the best alternate solutions possible for your freight.

If you have any questions regarding this process, please feel free to contact your FLI Account Manager.
